The Macao Independente, in a leading article says that on the night of the 7th instant two men were murdered near Taipa Pequena, opposite Praia Grando. These men were on and were fired upon by Chinese oruisers stationed there and killed. This, the Independente says, s a recurrence of the many similar assaults practised by the band of thieves and assassins who are admitted to the service of the fiscal stations at Malo-chow, and who do not scruple to commit such acts under cover of night thus escaping from the Portuguese water police and from the shot from the Macao forts. They are there to prevent opium smuggling, but in Pacific States of the Great Republic, though the present case the attacked craft was not on accompanied by outbreaks of mob fury, has a smuggling expedition, although she was on her way to Macao for the purpose of leading that drug. PARKER.

We, the undersigned officers of the Magistracy of Hongkong, and a few friends, beg to present you with the accompanying small token, as a mark of the high esteem in which you love been held by us during the time you have been connected with the Police Courts On your entrance to the service in your capacity as Acting Registration Clerk under the then Registrar. General, who is now Colonial Secretary and Lieutenant-Governor of Colombo, your abilities, courteey, perseverance, and knowledge of the natives, their language. and customs, soon not only gained the approbation of the Government of this colony, but of the whole na tive population of it; and when you were appointed to The Agent informs us that the Messageries the Second Clerkship at the Magistracy, this reputapromotion of the then First Clerk, were selected by important post. As to the way in which you have carried out those duties your testimonials from barristers that those sentiments therein expressed have not been appreciated by those gentlemen alone, as your kindnesses and goodnesses are very widely known among the native population to such an extent that they have run to you for assistance on each and every occasion when they requir deyour knowledge, experience, and advice, and which has been as readily given to both rich and poor as it was We sincerely regret that ill health should be the cause of your retirement, for we had longed to see you promoted to a still higher position to the one you now occupy in Her Majesty's Service, and we still health will be soon restored, and that you will return once again among us in a still higher station than the one that you now retire from. Your sincero friends and well wishers.

Mr. Parker returned thanks in a very neat speech and further thanked his assistants in the department for the conscientions and able assistance they had always rendered him. When be had been sick he left the affairs of the office in their hands with every confidence. He thanked all the friends whose names were on the testimonial for this gratifying mark of esteem, and he wished them every prosperity.
